PARENT APPRECIATION

Often parents seem to be forgotten and feel they they are taken for granted. In retrospect now in our senior year we can see how their patience, guidance, and understanding have enabled us to live in true happiness today.

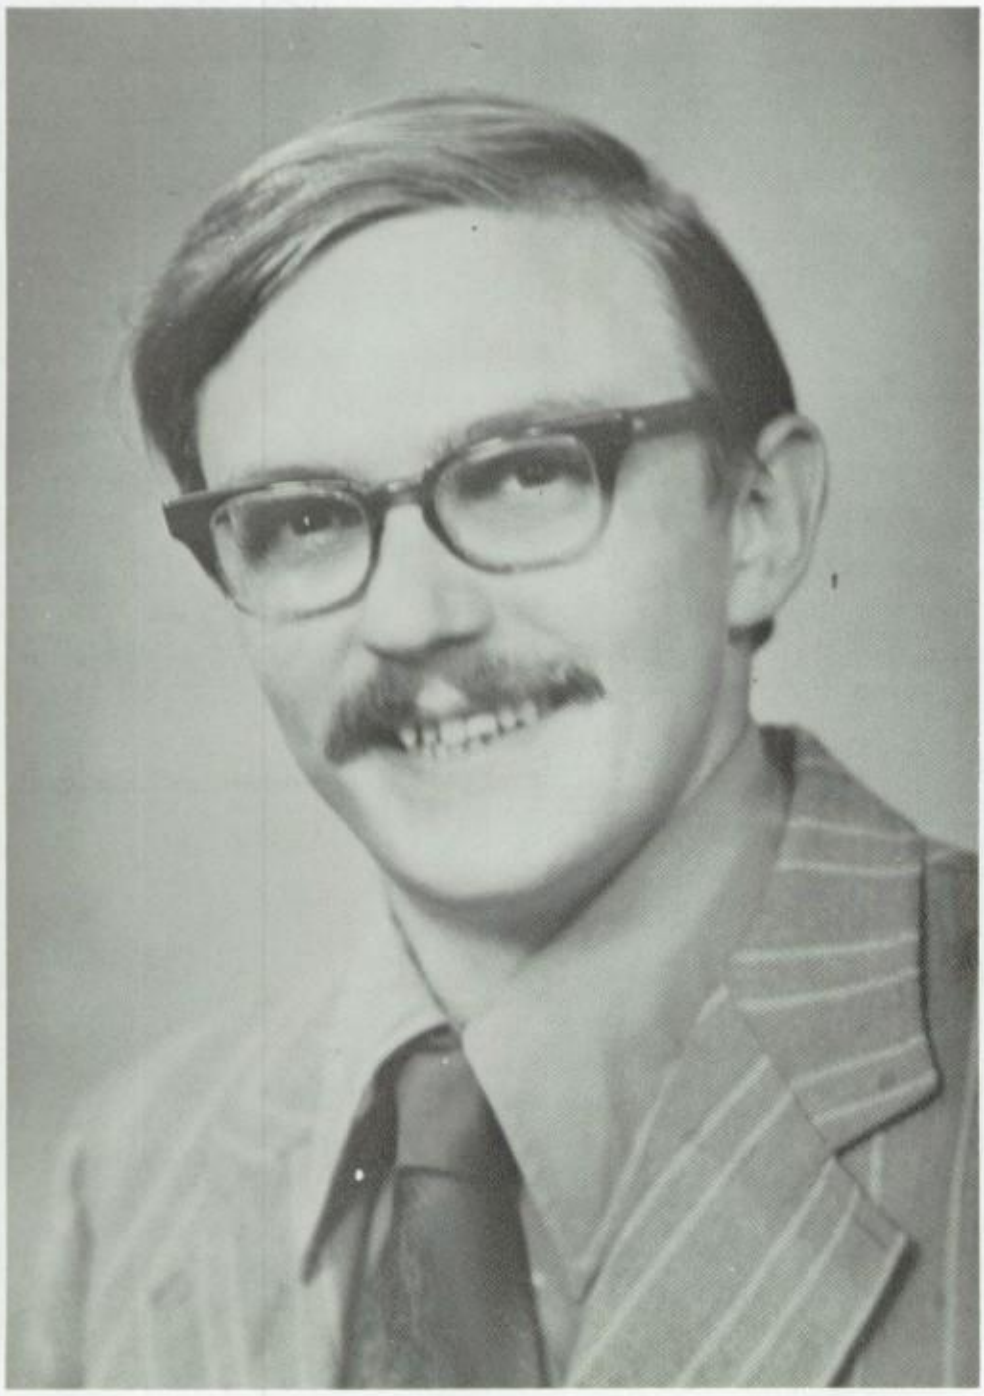
With our dedication of this page to you - our parents - we attempt to express our undying appreciation.

EDITORS' MESSAGE

As we pass through the halls of MCS for the last times, we begin to understand the things we have accomplished and realize how worthwhile the hours spent here have been. The mornings, the afternoons, the laughs, and even the tears are soon to be tucked away forever as memories.

As the year ends and friends part, we remember the excitement of our school days, the challenge of knowledge, and the warmth of a smile. Although we will be glad to be out on our own, we are saddened by the thought of leaving. But we have more years ahead of us than behind, so on that final day remember to keep the memories of yesterday, the dreams for tomorrow, and the happiness of today . . .

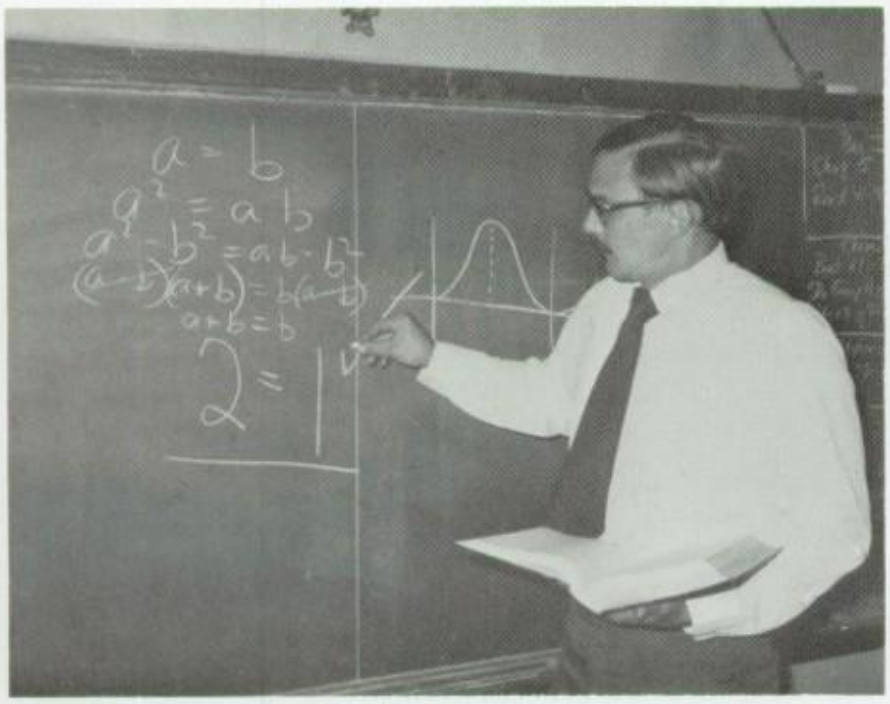
DEDICATION

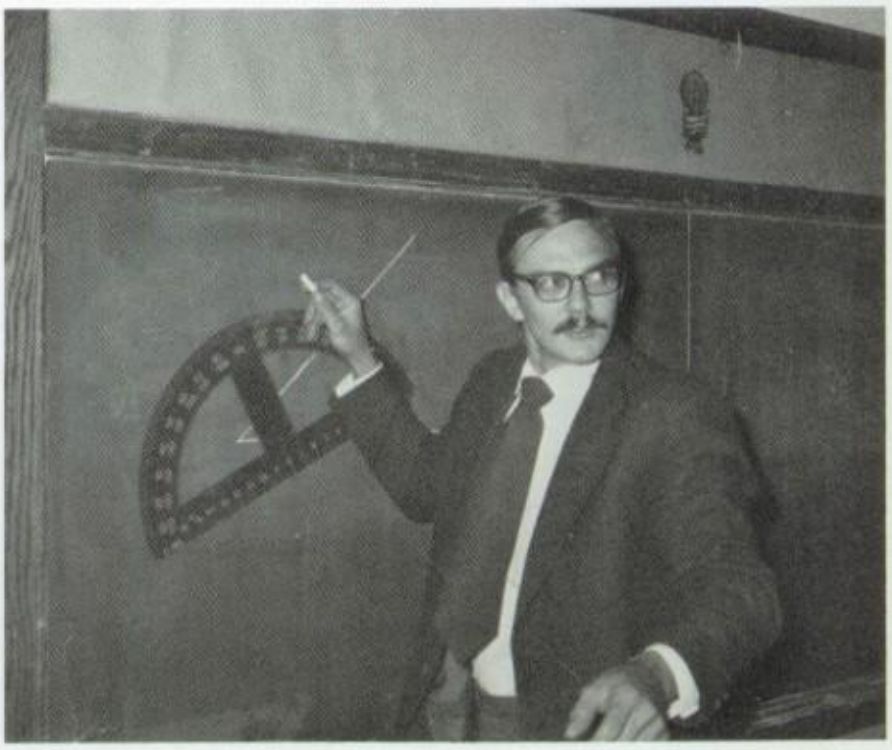


Throughout the years, there has been a man, an outstanding teacher, who has been ever present and aware of students' needs. We, the class of 1973, choose to dedicate our yearbook to the one who has given us the most time, guidance, joy, and even more important, a feeling of respect. We've grown to admire him not only as a teacher, but as a friend who has helped us through the difficult years of our lives.

Therefore, we dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Boynton.

Mr. Boynton





APPRECIATION

A teacher's interest in his students is an important factor in his ability to relate to them. This we feel, along with his easy going attitude and excellence in teaching, is the most prominent characteristic of the one whom we appreciate in this yearbook. His warm smile both in and out of classes made it easy to talk to him and to accept the responsibilities which he gave us. The excitement, laughter, and meaning he gave to his classes enlivened our years at MCS.

The class of 1973 wants to show its sincere thanks and appreciation for your never ending thoughtfulness, Mr. Clarke.

Best of luck
D Clarke

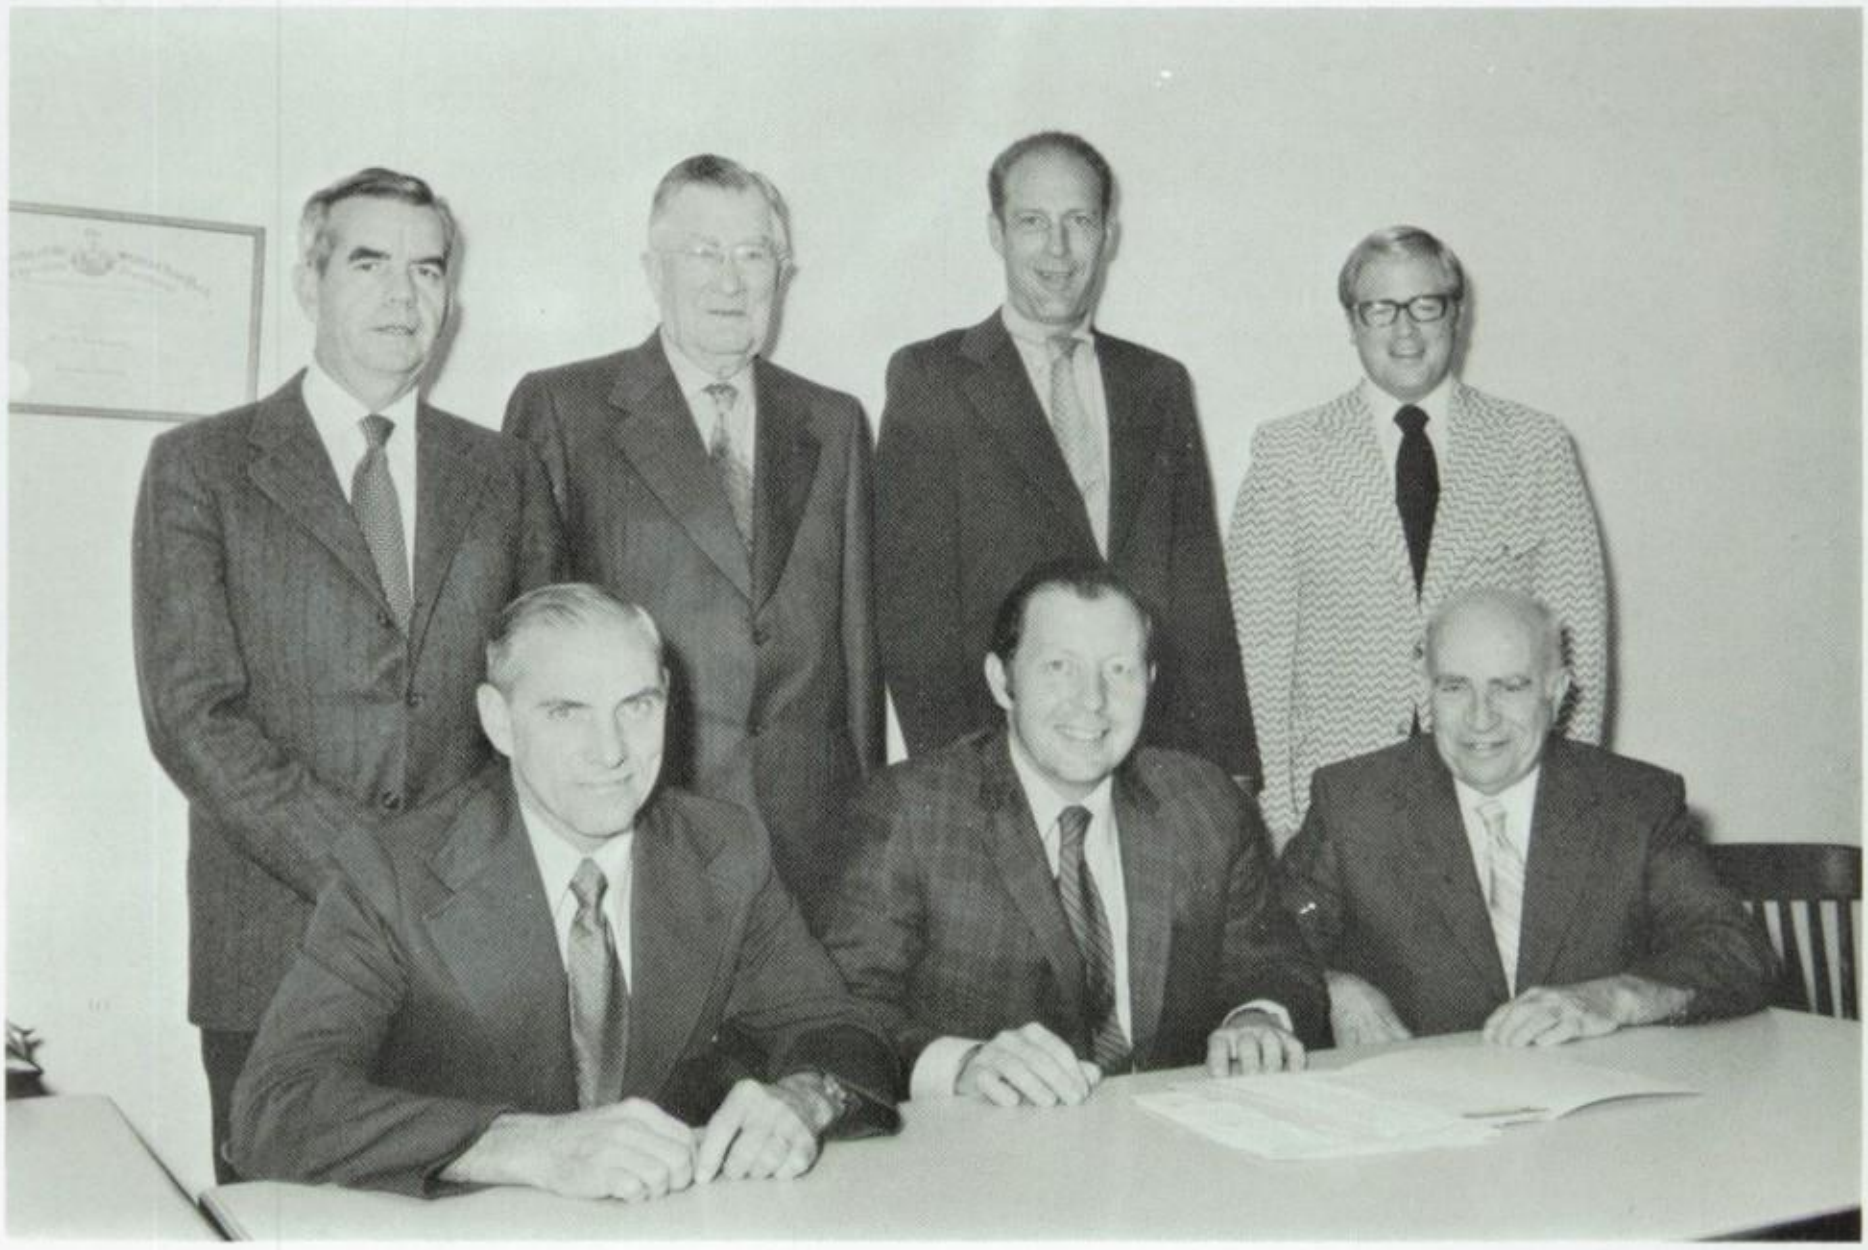
BOARD OF EDUCATION



SEATED: Mr. Calvin Lofstrom; Mr. Cecil Van Nostrand, Pres.; Mr. Albert Niles. STANDING: Mr. Richard Olson, Clerk; Mr. Edmund Delaney, Treas.; Mr. Burton Delaney; Mr. Barrie Hampton, V. Pres.

TO THE SENIORS:

This year marks for many of you, the end of your "formal" education. For others who are going on to higher education, it is the beginning of a new educational experience.

For all of you, however, it represents a complete change in your way of life. The popular song of this year, "We've only just begun", might well represent a theme song for your class for this should mark the beginning of a life which we hope will prove to be fruitful and profitable for each of you.

On behalf of the Board of Education, staff and myself, we would like to wish you happiness and success in your future life. It seems to me each class seems to have some collective attribute which characterizes it. The class of 1973, I feel, can be said to be one of great potential. I sincerely hope you will do all in your power to realize this potential for the welfare of yourself and our democratic society.

Best of luck to you all.

Kenneth F. Wright,

Acting District Principal

FOREWORD

Where does the time go? All too soon the joys of today will become memories of yesterday. Throughout this yearbook, our purpose is to retain these joys, these memories, for a lifetime. Therefore, we present this to you so that, in days to come, you may look back on the pages of this volume and recall just what it was to. . .

Live in the Happiness of Today.

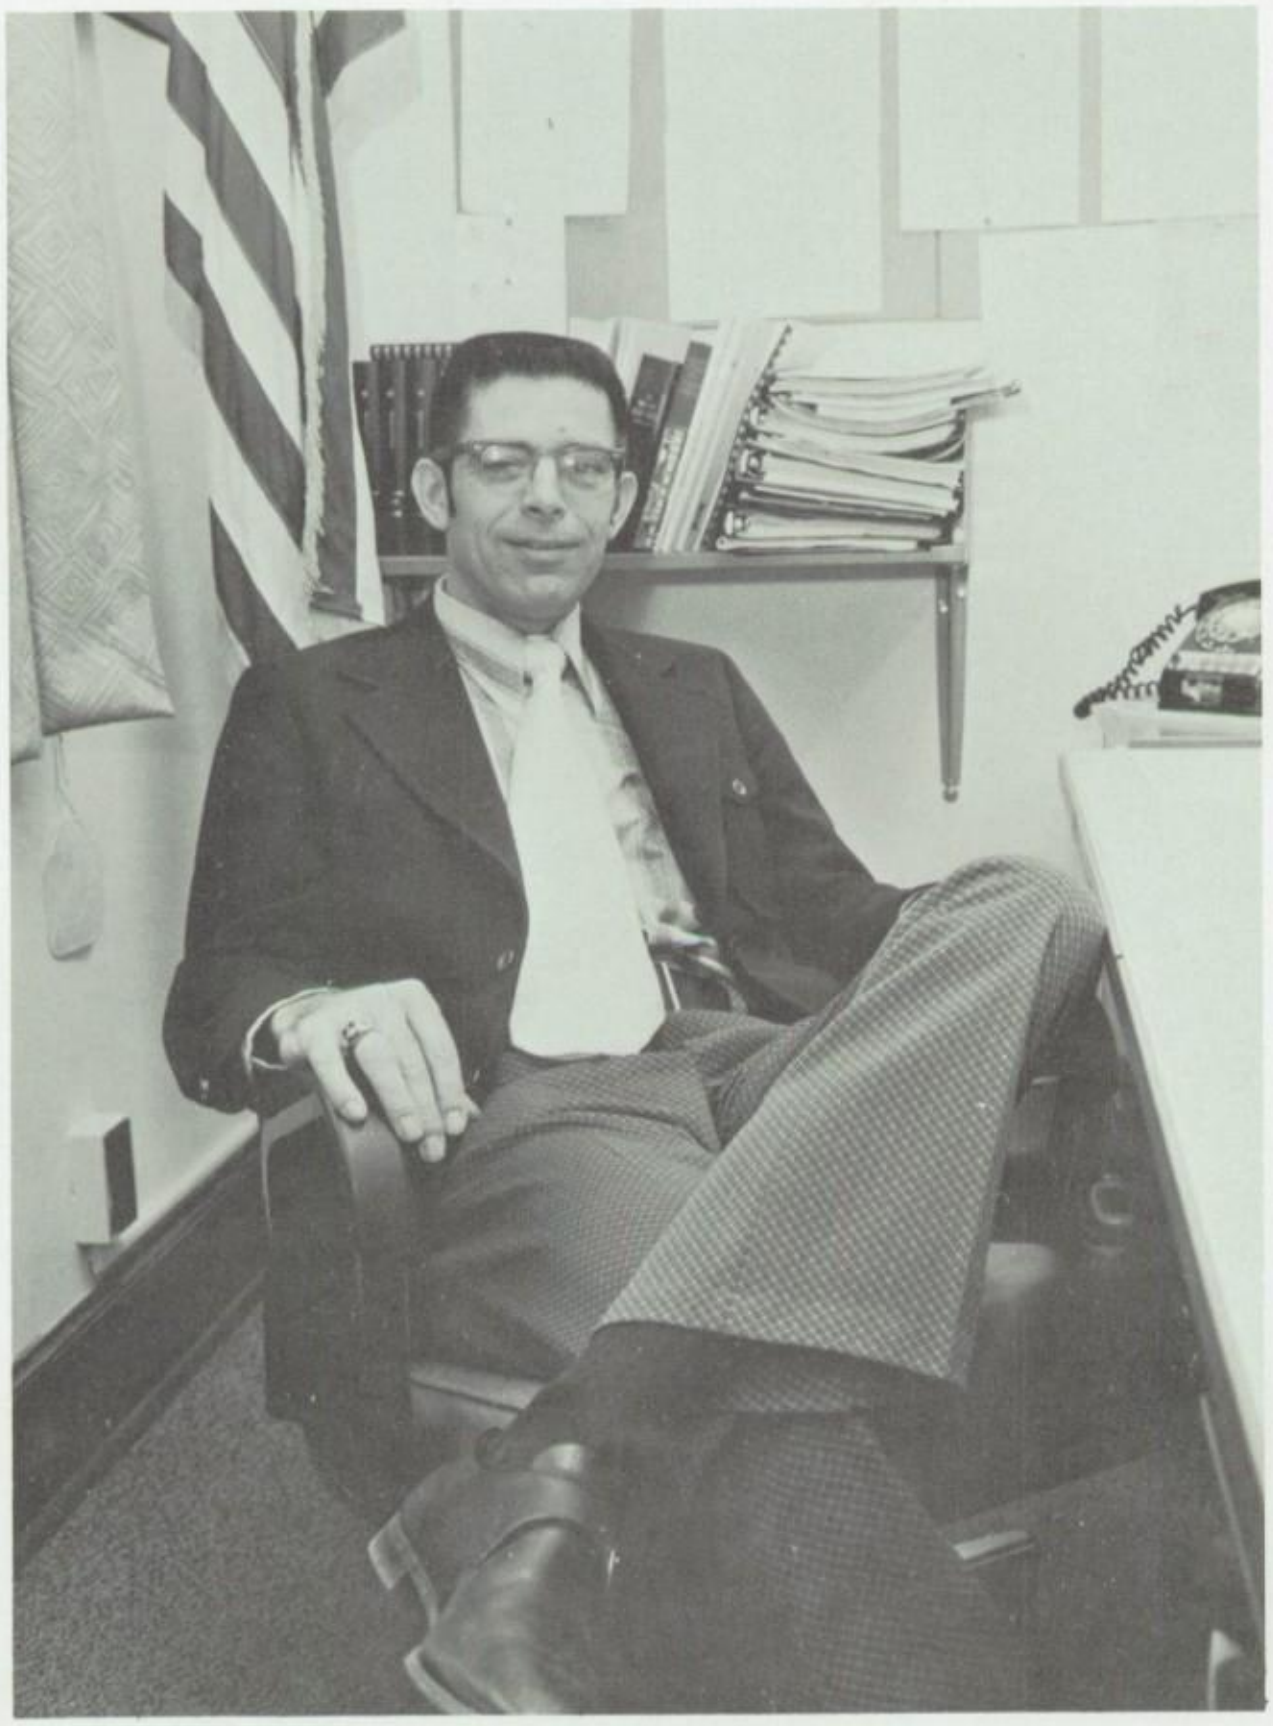
DISTRICT PRINCIPAL



Curtis J. Maxson

Mr. Maxson,

We, the yearbook staff, would like to dedicate this page to you on behalf of the student body, faculty, and staff. We would like to welcome you and your family to our district and to wish you much happiness and success. We seniors regret that we have not had the time really to work with you but know that the underclassmen will benefit from your dedicated cooperation. Therefore, with this, we, the school, say "welcome"; and we, the senior class, say "good-bye and good luck."
